

Conservative Club of East Pasco

May 16th 2011

Membership Mtg. @ John's Steak House 12:00 noon
38361 County Road 54, Zephyrhills

Featured speaker for the meeting was Zephyrhills Mayor W. Cliff McDuffie. Mr. McDuffie made the members aware that the month of April is National Scots, Scot-Irish Heritage Month. He told of the Scot's ancestry and heritage and of their many historic contributions to the United States. Of the original thirteen governors of America's colonies, nine were Scottish/Scot-Irish and of the 56 signers of the United States Declaration of Dependence almost half were of Scottish/Scot-Irish descent.

In other business the club conducted its Flash Mob for Kindness. Members brought to the meeting personal hygiene items, canned and dried foods, and/or cash donations to be given to the Samaritan Project. Together meetings of conservatives, tea party and 9/12 members to share ideals and to combine efforts in preparation for the 2012 general election was approved. Board member Joe Worrell will head the club's leadership team.

The Conservative Club of East Pasco at their monthly meeting voted against raising the debt ceiling unless it be accompanied by debt reduction measures. The members complained that increasing America's debt weakens the country's domestically and internationally and that government is shifting the burden of bad choices today onto the backs of our children and grandchildren

Kurt Sombutmai, owner of "2 Minutes Restaurant" was honored for sponsoring the club's new enhanced web site. New club bumper stickers were available sponsored by Gordon Hyde, Club Vice-President.

A Club picnic will be held on Saturday, August 6 at the pavilion at Krusen Field (off Airport Rd). Details to follow.

A written Presidential Straw Poll will be taken at the May 16 membership meeting of current RNC candidates

A East Pasco Leader's Roundtable consisting of leadership teams from our club, tea party and 9/12 will be held May 25, at 7:00 p.m. at the Frontage house, Dade City. The purpose of the meeting is to come together and share ideas and combine efforts in preparation for the 2012 general election. (Folks, Mark your calendar of all of these dates)

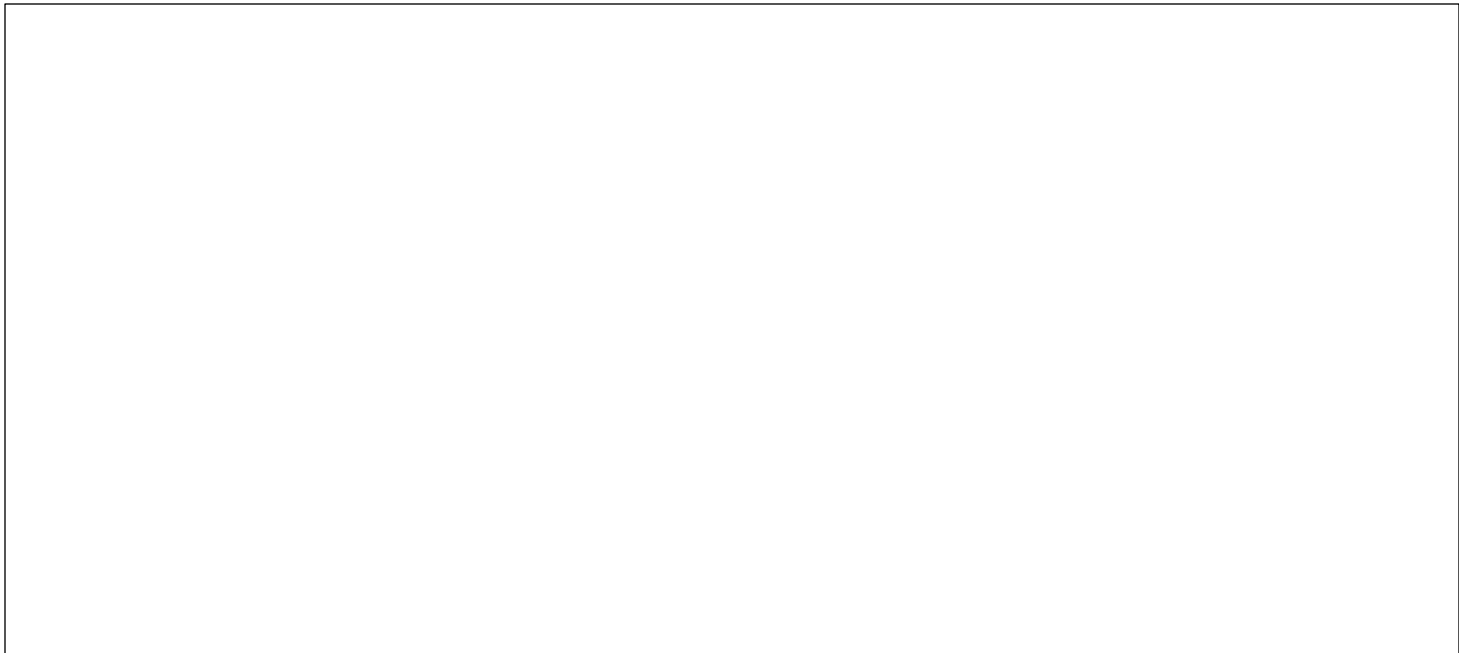

Mike Fasano will be our guest speaker for May. Please plan on attending and bring a friend and questions.
